

Please uphold Indiana's No Call list. It has been great at getting rid of an annoyance. There should be similar laws for mail and email. Don't take one of the few good things the government does away.